BIOGRAPHY

Troy Smith is a multidisciplinary Canadian contemporary designer whose art attracts galleries, private collectors and interior designers. Using furniture as a mean of expressing its creativity, Troy's eclectic collection of tables, chairs and sofas embodies meticulous craftsmanship and a unique design.

Troy works with durable materials, some of which date back to the 15th century, such as patterned rebar. His original, unique and limited edition pieces are available in rare marble, bronze, exotic wood, artisanal glass or luxurious leather. Troy's furniture has been described as avant-garde and visionary. Its simplicity, clean lines and fluidity are intrinsically powerful.

Troy expresses his passion for all beautiful things through his creations. He regularly visits the major international capitals of design and fashion and visits renowned museums, galleries and architectural monuments to explore and discover emerging trends and emblematic creations of art and design. These influences are a constant source of inspiration.

Troy is constantly experimenting with new concepts, materials, techniques and projects. Collectors can order unique pieces.
